

Tony Vino has been touring the comedy scene since early 2005. A finalist in 2006 Funny Bones competition, Tony has enjoyed recognition as a comedian and notably comedy compere of renown.

Tony is best known for the way he seamlessly mixes well thought out observational humour with audience interaction and quick witted responses. His life and interests are wide ranging, and so is his material, all performed in a warm, friendly and non-offensive style.

Well aware of social and political issues Tony has been called upon to entertain at many high profile events for charities such as Christian Aid, Oxfam, Fairtrade Foundation and TearFund. He does warm up work for BBC Songs of Praise and is a regular comedy pundit on BBC Radio Manchester. When hosting festivals and corporate events his confident effervescent persona has been found ideal for engaging crowds in their 100's and 1000's.

"A Great Show the assured Tony Vino copes with a mixed audience really well" Kate Copstic, The Scotsman

"The compère Tony Vino was excellent" 3 Weeks
4 stars "3 weeks"

"Uplifting style, great delivery and consistently funny throughout" Sam Walker, BBC Manchester

"Tony is very funny, a class act and always comes up with the goods" Darren Goddard, Greenbelt Festival Events

"Funny, straight-talking. Not afraid to dabble with religious issues, silly not sacrilegious, had to smile." Tim Park BBC Website

"Warm, engaging, funny and likeable, everything you want in a comedian" Lunacy Comedy

"Tony was delightful, he had 1000 people fully engaged and laughing throughout" Paul Jennings, ASDA Events/Communications

"Always good to have a comedian like Tony who is friendly, clean and very funny" Helen Tomblin, Laughing Sole Comedy Club

"Comedy that's life affirming" BBC1 Heaven & Earth Show

"Dripping with niceness" The List

"You don't always get such complete honesty from a comedian" Three Weeks

"Socially aware inoffensive fun" The List